Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods, FOR THE NEXT TWELVE DAYS.

At LESS THAN COST to manufacture, is the POINT that should electrify the purchasing element wherever this startling offer is known. We are forced to raise a certain amount of money, and must do it regardless of actual cost, real value or positive loss. For twelve days we will banish all idea of profit, and with a zeal begotten only of frenzied desperation pound merchandise down to prices that daze all dealers and delight every buyer in Hickman,

At 8 O'Clock Next Monday

And invite every man in the county to take pick and choice of our entire stock of CLOTHING at the following insignificant prices:

Such an opportunity to buy the finest goods at a mere nominal price, has never before occurred in this city. Cut right and left, cut up and down, cut prices on the finest as well as on the medium goods. Cut the values in two, is BUCHANAN'S motto during this forced-to-sell-sale. Cut on Clothing. Cut on Hats. Cut on Furnishings. Spare nothing; don't think of cost; let everything go, is H. BUCHANAN'S orders now.
